

I would like to voice my opinion to prevent any delays regarding Verizon's petition to delay the 11/24/02 deadline to have portability of cell phone numbers.

Consumers deserve the right to maintain their cell phone numbers when they switch carriers. This will foster competition and benefits the consumer in the short run and the industry in the long run. Land lines have been like this for years.

Thank you,

Charles Spierto